We are licensed to practise before the courts at Dubai International Financial Centre as solicitors and barristers. This expansion gives our clients more immediate access to the firm's specialists and wider network in the MENA region.

Presentation

We have left the baggage that comes with an old-school consulting model for interdependent modularity.

We deploy a mix of internal and external experts in a synchronized but modular team.

While these experts are interdependent on each other, they possess different core domain expertise.

This helps the client benefit from the best domain expertise from across the board, without any duplication of work within the team of different experts.

It avoids the need to manage multiple teams, or rely on one team with limited experience on different areas of expertise.

This reduces costs and management time of the client, and increases the quality of the teams product.

This also helps maintain legal privilege on all communication relating to the project.

In the end, it provides a cheaper, faster, safer and better work product to the client.
